

computer, student headphones/ear buds, and a printer. Further, this program requires the school to provide access to the Internet. This equipment is the responsibility of the school.

- The program includes individual student assessments; therefore, a 1:1 student computing ratio is ideal during the assessment component.
- Professional Development: Professional development is a one-day, onsite seminar.

SAMPLE